

Binary CEO Wins 2008 Enterprising Women of the Year Award

Corporate growth, community involvement and mentoring lands Wang Women of Year Award.

CARY, NC, February 27, 2008 — Monica Smiley, publisher and CEO of Enterprising Women Magazine has announced that Rose Wang, CEO of Binary Group is a 2008 Enterprising Women of the Year Award Winner. Binary Group is a management & technology advisory firm dedicated to the Federal Government market — acting as strategic advisors, thinkers and doers to move customers along the IT business transformation path to get them from Point A to Point B.

The Enterprising Women of the Year Award honors the country's finest women entrepreneurs and their remarkable success. The award also recognizes winners as leaders who have mentored and given back to other women in business, and have had a profound impact on their communities. Award recipients will be honored at a gala dinner on Thursday at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa in Lake Buena Vista, FL as part of a three-day celebration held in their honor.

"Our award winners are accomplished entrepreneurs who have earned the respect and admiration of their communities," Smiley said. "This award is a testament to each woman's remarkable accomplishments and we are proud to honor their business success. Every award winner is the president or CEO of a fast-growth company that has gone above and beyond to become a role model for other women in business."

"I am honored to be recognized at a national level and to be amongst this influential body of women business leaders. To be selected a winner of the 2008 Enterprising Women of the Year Award is validation of a vision and continuous hard work. I am proud to be in this winners circle, said Ms. Wang." The hallmark of Ms. Wang's success has been her desire to make a difference during each and every engagement for her customers and within her community. In doing so, Ms. Wang created a formidable, award-winning corporation with a reputation of being trustworthy, one with a staying power who is solving the toughest IT governance problems at the highest levels within the Department of Defense.
