WOMEN BUSINESS LEADERS NAMED TO WOMEN
IMPACTING PUBLIC POLICY (WIPP) EXECUTIVE ADVISORY BOARD

Business Leaders Reappointed to Board to Lead Committee on Procurement

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Women Impacting Public Policy (WIPP), the nation's largest nonpartisan public policy organization that advocates on behalf of women in business, announces its new Executive Advisory Board, the body of senior members who represent the WIPP membership at large to the Board of Directors. Members of the Board will serve as the voice for over half a million women in business and inform the strategic design and direction of the organization.

Rose Wang, CEO/President of Binary Group and Lisa Firestone, President and CEO of Managed Care Advisors serve as Co-chairs of the Procurement Committee as part of the Executive Advisory Board. Joining them is Lourdes Martin-Rosa, President of Government Business Solutions, LLC as Deputy Chair of the Committee. The Committee focuses on current policy related to procurement, improving education and resources for women business owners seeking federal contracts, and increasing access to federal contracts for women business owners.

Women Impacting Public Policy is a nonprofit, national nonpartisan group with over half-a-million members. WIPP is The Collective Voice in Washington, D.C., for 49 national women and small business organizations. WIPP advocates for and on behalf of women and minorities in business in the legislative process of our nation, creating economic opportunities for members and building alliances with other small business organizations.
